Former Hearst Editor Tells
Committee He Paid Less
Than $500 for Them.

Washington, January 22.—Charles P. J. Mooney, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, and formerly managing editor of the New York American, told the Senate Campaign Fund Investigating Committee to-day about securing copies of some of the Standard Oil letters published by William R. Hearst.

Mr. Mooney testified he negotiated for copies of only a few of the Archbold letters; that they were brought to the American offices by a white man, whose name he did not know, and that he paid less than $599.

"I believed that with letters containing matters of this sort; t was some one's duty to make them public. They showed that senators and representatives sworn to protect the public interests were committing treason against the people," Mr. Mooney told the committee.
